

Telegraph Hill festival

Presents

Rock The Day Away

Sunday 19th March 2023

The Amersham Arms

388 New Cross Road

1.00pm - 10.00pm

Tickets on sale 25 Feb from: Telegraph Hill Festival (and on the door)

£10 full-day pass

(concessions £5.00 - NHS, teachers, 60+, unwaged, students)

Food served all day - Brockley Yard Sale Pizza Co

Host and MC Audley Genus from Rainbyrds

ColorColour - 2.00pm

Previously Deep Blue Sea toured the UK and Europe releasing several successful albums, the band is back with a new vocalist. This is the first gig with the new lineup. They will be playing tracks from "Strange Ways" (which topped the UK blues charts in 2019) and "Live It Up" their debut live album plus some new surprises.

ColorColour website
Strange Ways YouTube

Hanna & George - 2.35pm

Hanna And George are a Folk/Indie duo from South London. Bringing you back in time to the good old days with some Bob Dylan Covers, Joan Baez and much more as well as celtic influenced and singer songwriter originals and all around simply good storytelling.

Hanna and George YouTube
Hanna and George instagram

CrossGate - 3.00pm

Born, bred and founded in New Cross, Crossgate gives the best of both worlds. Rock and funk! Our band features Bass, Sax, Drums, Keys, Guitar and the occasional singing. We are an experienced band, having already played at the Hill station Cafe in Telegraph Hill and the Hootenanny in Brixton.

Instagram CrossGate

Flogan - 3.35pm

Kick-ass harmony duo featuring Louisiana scrubboard

Flaky Jake and Miriam Hogan (FLOGAN) play accordion, guitar, and Louisiana scrubboard and sing in harmony, featuring songs from America especially Louisiana influenced by cajun and zydeco music. They also play a wide variety of songs that somehow work with their instruments, against all the odds

Flogan Facebook
Si tu dois partir

Bring The Angels - 4.00pm

We're a young upcoming rock band based in South London playing classic, hard and original rock and heavy blues.

Bring The Angels website
Bring The Angels Facebook

The PGs - 4.35pm

The PGs are South East London trio. With quirky, melodic arrangements, occasional musical gizmos and props, and some rich vocals, they are a tough band to categorise. They plunder a variety of musical genres in the course of their set, so expect anything from Indie pop to Folk, from Rock to Music Hall (plus their own kicking tunes too!)

Warning- Kazoos may be used during the performance but we are assured that this will be done sensitively and sparingly!

“...a unique, harmony-filled Indie Folk experience that is captivating”
“Sumptuous vocal harmonies, crazy kazoos and goose-bumping songs”

Women of the World
Because I Love You
Beautiful Cosmos
The Way It Is

Blue Bishops - 5.00pm

The legendary blues rock band making a very rare appearance in London. Playing original intelligent, crafted songs mixed with dynamic interpretations of blues rock classics they have built a reputation for high quality live shows in the UK and Europe.

Blue Bishops website

Blue Bishops Facebook

Alex Brewood and friends - 5.35pm

Alex is a published songwriter and accomplished singer and performer. He will be playing some original compositions and a few favourite covers in his warm and intimate style. Alex will be joined by some brilliant local musicians for this one-off set.

Hang My Head

Damaged Goods

Deptford Wives - 6.00pm

Rockabilly lounge lizards playing bi-millennial rockabilly blues! Bring your dancing shoes. Deptford Wives is now a four piece with artist /singer Edori Fertig at the helm bringing a New York style to classic soul and blues covers while her original lyrics chart a wry and dry course through the perils of modern life.

Deptford Wives Facebook

Deptford Wives website

Joli Blon Cajun - 6.35pm

Joli Blon Cajun Band, who take their name from a much loved Cajun waltz, play traditional dance music from Louisiana on accordion, fiddle and guitar. Stomping two-steps, swampy waltzes and a bit of blues - all sung in Cajun French and brought to you by a core trio of women.

Jolie Blon Facebook

J'etais au Bal - I went to the Dance

English Drama - 7.00pm

Something disturbingly different. Tales of the Unexpected. Tarrantino on the streets of New Cross. Almodóvar on acid. English Drama is an audio-visual experimental project from Piti Varela.

English Drama

Kitto Collective - 7.35pm

Kitto Collective is a group of South London musicians. Core members Toby, Sophia and Jen perform regularly as a trio, offering a mix of jazz/soul/rock/country/pop classics and also originals.

@kitto.collective

Weird Sleeping Kittens - 8.00pm

WSK is a 5-piece band based in SE4, performing their own distinctive brand of psychedelic trip-hop folk featuring dark fairy-tale lyrical themes. Since releasing their first album, Serenade, in 2010 to releasing their most recent album, Bring What You Hope in 2020, they have been compared to bands as diverse as Jefferson Airplane and Zero 7.

Weird Sleeping Kittens - Facebook

WSK Spotify

Julio Jak - 8.35pm

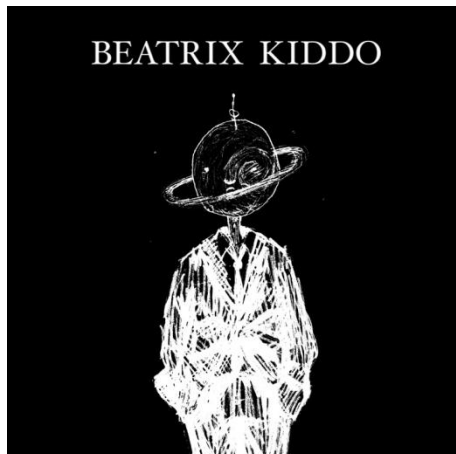

Teenage guitar prodigy Julio will be playing some solo performances showcasing his incendiary guitar playing style which has drawn attention from many musical deities including God himself!

Julio Jak Facebook

Beatrix Kiddo - 9.00

Beatrix Kiddo are a London-based four-piece designed to explore the nuances of noisy music, wandering from laid-back funk beats and huge melodic hooks to grating metal riffs and wailing saxophone improvisation via subtle time signature changes, psychedelic textures and extended jam sections, often within the same track. Their live shows are notoriously energetic, with relentless, chaotic drumming and manic saxophone screeching colliding with walls of distorted bass guitar noise and jagged guitar explorations. Their five-track EP drops later in 2023 on streaming services and extremely limited edition cassette.

Beatrix Kiddo Instagram

Beatrix Kiddo Facebook